2012 Season

Peoples Republic
 By Angie Ramsdell

Hotline
 By Elaine May

February 10–25

Our annual Coffeehouse Production features two comedic one-act plays that explore the idea of good customer service. Peoples Republic tells the story of a bank robbery in which the villain gets more than he bargained. Hotline features a woman calling a suicide crisis hotline late one night on the counselor's first day on the job.

Family-Friendly Youth Production

Just So
 By Anthony Drewe & George Stiles
 June 21–July 1

How did the Elephant get his trunk?
 How did the Leopard get his spots?
 How did the Rhinoceros get his skin?

JUST SO

The team that composed Honk! Answers these questions in a fresh interpretation of Rudyard Kipling's Just So Stories that teaches a fanciful lesson about personal courage, individuality and friendship.

Vintage Hitchcock: A Live Radio Play
 By Joe Landry
 April 20–May 5

Spies, murder, love, and other trademarks of Alfred Hitchcock come to life in the style of a 1940s radio broadcast of the master of suspense's earlier films. Don't miss this behind-the-scenes look at an era-gone-by, complete with vintage commercials, live sound effects, and musical underscoring.

Bat Boy: The Musical
 by Keythe Farley, Brian Flemming, & Laurence O'Keefe
 August 17–September 1

Based on the tabloid story from The Weekly World News, this musical/comedy/horror show tells the story of a half boy/half bat creature who is discovered in a cave near Hope Falls, West Virginia. This show is for mature audiences only.

John & Jen
 by Andrew Lippa and Tom Greenwald
 November 9–18

This emotionally powerful musical takes a look at the complexities of relationships between brothers and sisters and parents and children, set against the background of a changing America between 1950 and 1990.
